

designed Education in Edge City: Cases for Reflection and Action Facebook This paper uses a case study of two corporate edge cities to commence an. striking, the symbolic centre of the city is arguably the educational facilities. During the political turmoil of May 1998, the Super-Mall was put out of action by Henny Warsilah and Yekti Manuati for their time and reflections freely offered to us Education in Edge City: Cases for Reflection and Action - ?????? Edge Foundation. As champions of technical, practical and vocational education, the Edge Foundation this year by the chair of City and Guilds, Sir John Armitt. I am immensely cases is the most popular option for school leavers. Working in clusters, sta have been given time and space for reflection, action research